Introduction

Opening

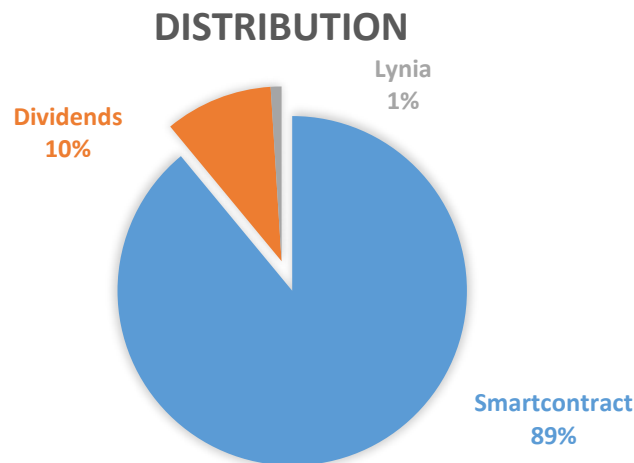

We created Lynia to build a trusted gaming & entertainment platform for the crypto currency sector. Our Lynia token was deployed as a smart-contract, owned by the ethereum blockchain itself.

The smart-contract processes since them all functions without a middlemen. This guarantee, that nobody can destroy, manipulate or shut down the contract ever.

The Exchange

The Decentralized Application (Dapp)

No ICO! Our Lynia token is exclusive available only on our own dapp exchange. People can buy & sell the token instantly against ethereum. Every order includes an 11% exchange tax, the remaining ethereum will be stored on the smart contract, to guarantee the token buy back anytime.

Price Structure

The token price is dynamic and increase with its total supply or decrease with its total supply.

Token Incentives

The smart contract shares 10% from its exchange tax fairly and instantly to every token holder. Token holder participate also on the profit sharing from its own gaming & entertainment platform.

Lynia.Games

The Platform

Lynia.Games is based on an off-chain technology, which have lot of advantages and benefits.

We can guarantee with the off-chain technology a flawless and fluent gameplay without paying high fees like on dapps. In case of this, everyone need to register an account to participate.

On-chain apps without registration will be also launched in the future.

Games (Dice, PVP)

Classic Dice

Choose a bet and click roll dice to generate a result from 0 – 100. If the roll is within your green win region you win! You can adjust your win chance for a higher or lower reward on win. Our classic dice game supports over 10 different crypto currencies.

PVP Tournament (exclusive for LYNI Holder)

The PVP tournament begins every Monday and ends every Sunday. Everyone who like to participate to the PVP game have to pay an entry ticket-fee of 25 LYNI per round.

Once the player accept the payment. Three dices appears and the countdown begins. The Player have 30 seconds time to roll the dices and collect as much points as possible during this timeframe.

Lynia.Games

The Player can see his cumulated points instantly on a top 15 ranking and compare the results with other players. A Player can play as many rounds as he wish during the same tournament. Only the highest cumulated point per round counts and wins the Jackpot & VIP membership. The jackpot begins at 500 LYNI and increase +15 LYNI per sold ticket.

Everyone who refer new players to the PVP tournament game have also the opportunity to earn referral commissions. We have a five level deep uni level structure.

Level 1: 4% = 1 LYNI | 2 Friends

Level 2: 4% = 1 LYNI | 4 Friends

Level 3: 4% = 1 LYNI | 8 Friends

Level 4: 4% = 1 LYNI | 16 Friends

Level 5: 4% = 1 LYNI | 32 Friends

Total of 62 Players

Example:

You refer two friends and your friend refer two friends. That would be 62 players on 5 Levels. Every time when one of your friends purchase a ticket you will receive 1 LYNI. Imagine, every Monday when a new PVP Tournament starts and 62 Friends playing an average of 10 rounds, you would receive 620 LYNI in commissions every week!
